PREFACE

The 1974 Directory of Oregon Libraries statistics show a statewide increase in public library expenditures of 16%, compared to a 6% gain in 1973 over 1972.

This year Baker County jumped ahead in circulation per capita with 11.1 and Josephine County held a close second with 10.0. Baker County also captured the highest expenditure per capita, $6.44, with Jackson County again holding second highest with $5.48. Expenditure per capita in the area of Oregon receiving public library service jumped to $4.46 compared to $3.94 in 1973, and to $3.60 for the entire state compared to $3.16 the previous year. These figures were computed based on the 1973 Center for Population Research and Census figures due to the late December publication of the 1974 population figures.

Circulation statewide increased by 17% compared to a 2% decrease in 1973 over 1972. Circulation per capita remained the same, 5.9, in the area served by public libraries and decreased from 4.8 to 4.7 statewide. Twenty counties reported a circulation gain compared to 22 in 1973.

Public support received by Oregon public libraries from city, county, and other fund sources (including federal grants and federal Revenue Sharing funds) increased 17% in 1974 over 1973 compared to a 6% gain in 1973 over 1972. This was mostly due to Revenue Sharing funds being continued and to the late release of 1973 LSCA Title I impounded funds. It should be noted that receipt of the 1973 impounded funds and 1974 LSCA Title I grants is recorded in receipts but not in expenditures for the 1974 FY. Expenditure of these grants will be reflected in the 1975 FY Directory.

Oregon's population without local public library service totaled 428,100 or 19% compared to 20% (422,235) in 1973.

Emergency Employment Act funds received by two and Revenue Sharing funds received by 27 public libraries have been footnoted in the "Other Funds" columns of the statistics.

This year public libraries that received 1973 LSCA Title I impounded funds or 1974 LSCA Title I or Title III grants are designated by an asterisk (*) and the reader is referred to pp. 26 and 27, an alphabetical Lists of Grants-in-Aid, Library Services and Construction Act.

Bookmobile and station circulation for each county are included in the figure designated "Extension Service" under each county, pp. 12-21.

Compiled in the 1974 Directory are complete statistics provided by 184 of Oregon's 185 public libraries, including branches.

The State Library wishes to express its appreciation for the cooperation and assistance of Oregon librarians, trustees, and public officials in providing the data essential for this publication.

State Librarian
